DAWN EXPERIENCE

An unmissable experience to watch the first rays of sunlight shine behind the mountains of Scala and illuminate the entire Amalfi Coast. In the stillness of the early morning, while the town of Scala remains peaceful and dark, a professional guide will lead you through a magical scene filled with vibrant reds and oranges, offering a breathtaking view.

Once at the top, enjoy a hearty breakfast made with local treats—jams, cakes, juices, eggs, and fresh fruit, all gifts from the land. The experience concludes with a leisurely walk through the medieval village of Scala.

AUTHENTIC RURAL EXPERIENCE

Step into the heart of the Amalfi Coast for a true journey back to the roots of the land and the simple rhythms of rural life passed down by our grandparents. Starting from Ravello, a professional guide will lead you on an educational and gastronomic tour through the most picturesque chestnut groves of the Monti Lattari. Discover ancient traditions that have been lovingly preserved through generations of passion and hard work.

In the chestnut valley, enjoy a delightful picnic set on wooden tables, featuring local delicacies such as chestnut honey, cheeses, salamis, rustic pizza, and a glass of fine local wine. From September to early November, you can also participate in the chestnut harvest and enjoy the timeless tradition of tasting roasted chestnuts.

PATH OF THE GODS

Start from Agerola, nestled in the Lattari Mountains, the Path of the Gods begins, spanning 8 km to Nocelle near Positano. Novice hikers enjoy panoramic views of the Gulf of Salerno, Faraglioni Capri, and Sorrento Peninsula. Originating from Bourbon communication routes, legend ties its creation to gods averting Ulysses' shipwreck. The initial ascent to Santa Maria del Castello is challenging, while the path to Nocelle is easier. Mediterranean flora decorates the trail, leading to landmarks like St. Dominic's Convent and the Pistillo limestone spire. Culminating in Nocelle, 1550 steps descend to Positano, where refreshments await at a kiosk, marking the end of this captivating journey.
